

CALVARY BAPTIST ACADEMY ADMISSIONS POLICY ~ for Non-CBC Members

Since teaching a student from a Biblical point of view will be impossible without the proper environment at home, we assert that a parent must be . . .

1. A member in “good standing” of your local New Testament church.
2. Actively involved in a ministry of your own church. Please list areas of active involvement!

3. Faithful to the regular services of their home church as well as special meetings.
4. In full agreement with the philosophy of the school and willing to sign a statement of endorsement to this fact.
5. Willingly involved in the educational process of their child as evidenced by:
 - a. Attending ALL Parent/Teacher meetings
 - b. Ensuring homework completion
 - c. Supporting decisions of the teacher and administration
 - d. Supporting any disciplinary actions of administration in reference to the child
 - e. Attending CBA school functions, when not in conflict with the home church schedule.
6. Willing to be interviewed by the Admission Committee of CBA.

We also assert that for a child to be admitted to Calvary Baptist Academy they must . . .

1. Have a clear salvation testimony by the age of thirteen years old.
2. Willing to be interviewed by the Admission Committee of CBA.
3. Be faithful to all of the regular services of their home church as well as special meetings.
4. Exhibit acceptable behavior.
5. Exhibit a cooperative attitude toward the school ministry as well as toward the authority of the teachers.
6. Be of reasonably good health and intelligence and not requiring special education (Our school is not equipped or staffed for such a need).
7. Be free from all communicable diseases.
8. Be six years old by September 1st in order to enter first grade.

(Date)

(Signature)